

PUSHER STATION

Heavy Duty

Pusher Stations construction is suitable for very heavy products.

Design Options

Available in two different applications: Pneumatic Cylinder or Electric Motor.

Application Options

Can be used for many different applications including, product sorting, palletizing or rejecting.

Span Techs Pusher Stations sort your products efficiently by ejecting them or halting them altogether.

Recommended For:

Distribution • E-Commerce • Cosmetics

Completely customizable to fit your material handling needs.

Adaptable to many different applications, the Pusher Station is an ideal solution for sorting specific product from the main conveyor flow. Its rugged construction is suitable for heavy products and ideal for product sorting, palletizing and product reject systems.

