

DRIP TRAY

Designed to catch liquids and debris that could fall off the conveyor.

Material Options

Designed in stainless steel or lexan (for visibility underneath)

Decrease Hazards

Designed to catch liquid and debris that could fall off the conveyor to eliminate hazards.

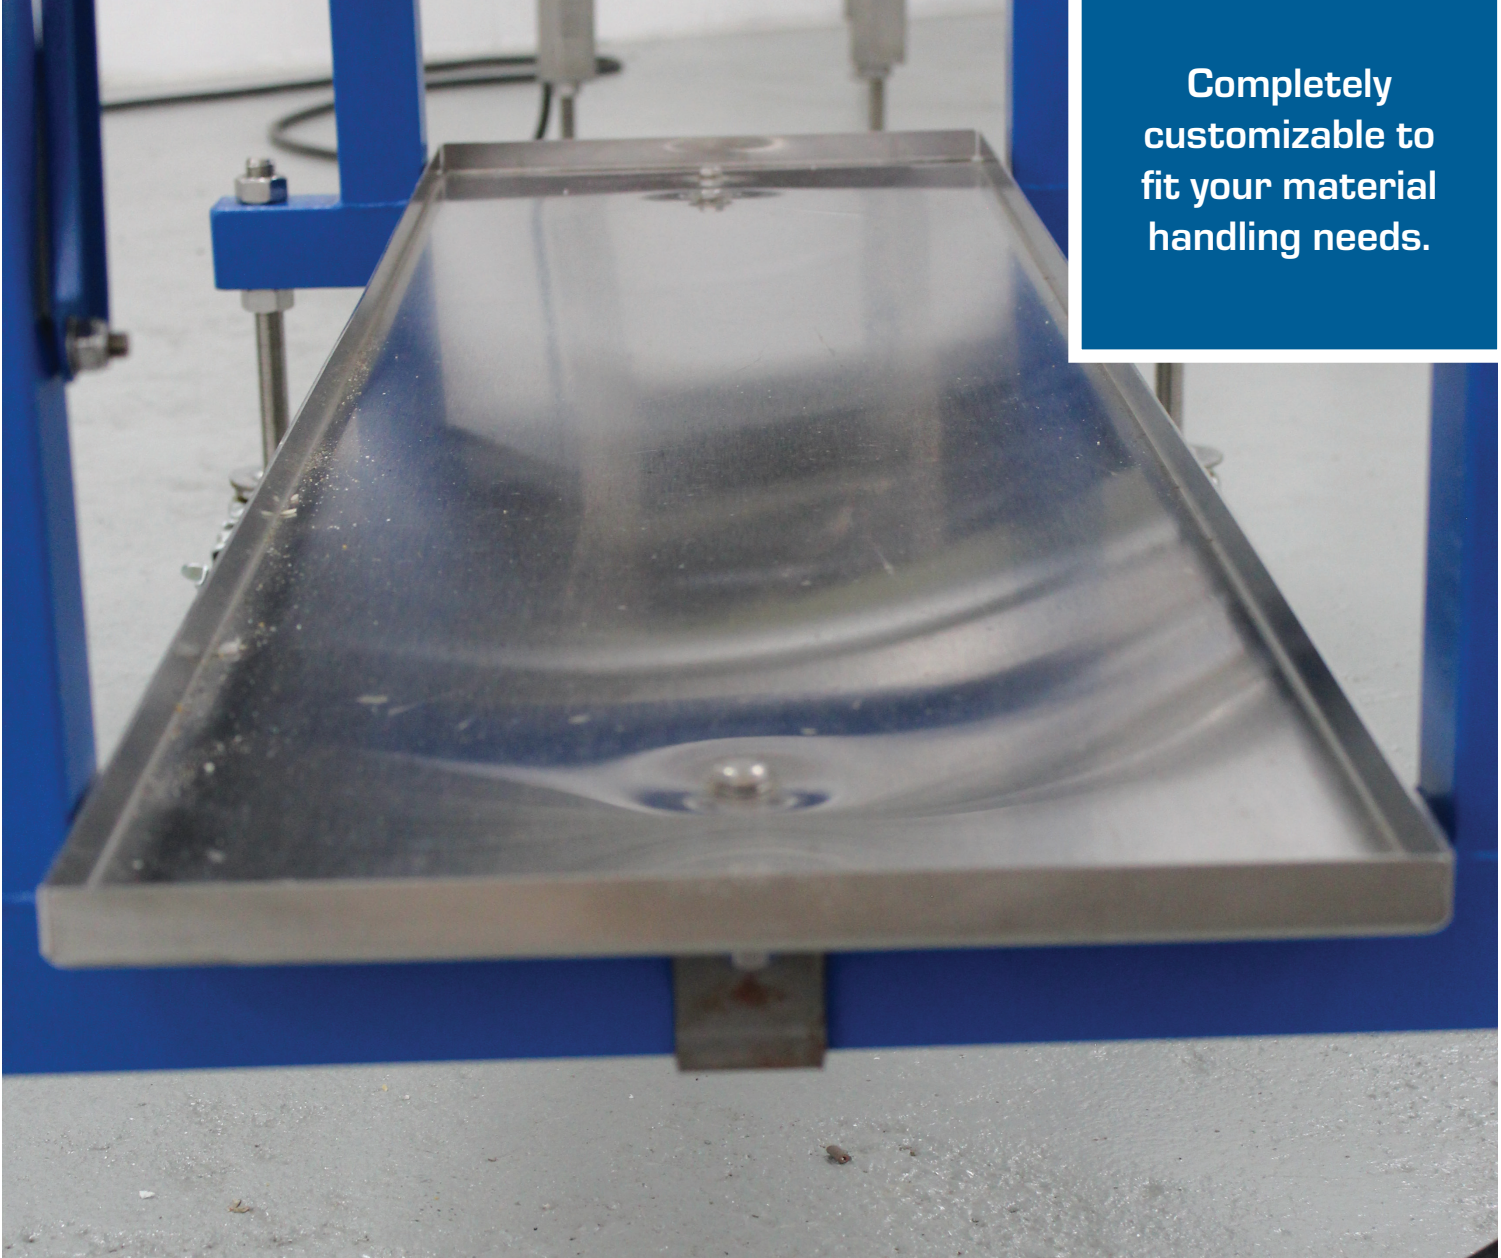

Drain Features

Can be equipped with drain plugs so liquid can be routed to centralized drainage system.

Recommended For:

Beverage Production

Completely customizable to fit your material handling needs.

Limit any potential damage that could occur from product dripping. Drip Trays are designed to catch liquids and debris that could fall off the conveyor. They also protect from liquid and debris from falling onto walkways or other areas under the conveyor. Drip Trays can be equipped with drain plugs so liquid can be routed to a centralized drainage system.

